The true light, the brightest light is very close to us.
The rays of light are happiness. My heart is happy and
I give thanks, I give thanks.
The true light, the brightest light is very close to us.
The rays of light are happiness. My heart is happy and
I give thanks, I give thanks.

This is not just a emotional feeling but this is the truth.
This is not just a emotional feeling but this is the truth.
Through this light we will receive the Holy Spirit.
God is this light. God is this light. For this I give thanks.
The rays of light are happiness. My heart is happy and
I give thanks, I give thanks.

Through this light we will receive joy.
Through this light we will receive joy.
Because of this light we will receive the eternal heaven.
I am writing this poem to give thanks.
The rays of light are happiness. My heart is happy and
I give thanks, I give thanks.

Let's ask forgiveness for all our sins. Let's turn from our evil ways.
Let's ask forgiveness for all our sins. Let's turn from our evil ways.
Let's turn from sin and give the rudder of our lives to God.
Then He will give us a new life. I give thanks for this.
The rays of light are happiness. My heart is happy and
I give thanks, I give thanks.

Is God not able to do everything?
Is God not able to do everything?
Everyone wants to receive light.
Because You, Lord, have shown me miracles, I give thanks.
The rays of light are happiness. My heart is happy and
I give thanks, I give thanks.

The true light, the brightest light is very close to us.
The rays of light are happiness. My heart is happy and
I give thanks, I give thanks.
I give thanks, I give thanks, I give thanks.
