Title: He is the Light in Your Heart

Translation of: ﷺ

He is the light that is in your heart,
He is the strength that gives happiness to your heart.
Let's remember Him always with our heart, mind and spirit.
He is the light that is in your heart,
He is the strength that gives happiness to your heart.
Let's remember Him always with our heart, mind and spirit.
He is the light that is in your heart.

Stay away, stay away, from worldly temptations and desires.
Let us stay away from worldly temptations and desires,
Let us keep, let us keep this faith we have in our hearts forever.
Keep going straight. Stay in the true path, by obeying God.
Let's remember Him always with our heart, mind and spirit.
He is the light that is in your heart.

Let us go to, let us go to our loving Lord.
Let us go to our loving Lord, joyfully,
with no hindrance between us and His Presence, His Presence.
Because we believe in the true God and His love,
His love is forever.
Let's remember Him always with our heart, mind and spirit.
He is the light that is in your heart.
