Title: Never Ending Praise

Translation of:

My God and My Lord.
There is never ending praise for You in my heart, My Lord.

Countless help You give me, Lord.
You are the one who gives life to my spirit and soul.
You are the One I praise. My God and My Lord.
There is never ending praise for You in my heart, My Lord.

We all should give thanks and praise to God.
That is the way we should worship God.
If we give praise to God we will get joy and peace.
My God and My Lord.
There is never ending praise for You in my heart, My Lord.

All the stars in the sky and even the wind give witness that You are the Almighty God.
The sun and the moon would not exist without You.
My God and My Lord.
There is never ending praise for You in my heart, My Lord.
