Title: Forgive

Translation of:

Forgive your spouse when they ask you, when they regret what they've done.
Forgive your spouse when they ask you, when they regret what they've done.
Remember the promises you made to each other,
remember the promises you made to each other,
Don't turn your back on each other and leave.
Forgive your spouse when they ask you, when they regret what they've done.

Don't ignore your spouse. Listen to them.
Love will heal the wounded hearts. Your hearts can change.

Write this on your heart. Keep to the right path, don't forsake it.
