Title: The Breeze

Translation of:

The breeze is light, the moon is full,
The earth feels new. The earth feels new.
The breeze is light, the moon is full,
The earth feels new. The earth feels new.
My heart prays silently. An unending honest prayer will renew the heart, will renew the heart.

In my heart there is a song, a prayer,
In my heart there is a song, a prayer,
I long for Your love, I am Yours and You are my king. Oh...
I pray for Your leading. You are the king of the Universe,
My heart is renewed, my heart is renewed.

You are the name I trust, You are my light.
You are the name I trust, You are my light.
God please lead me. Oh...
I praise You, for You give me help.
My heart is renewed, my heart is renewed.

Surely this world will pass.
Surely this world will pass.
Then there will be eternal life. Oh...
I long for that life. There is a silent prayer in my heart.
My heart is renewed, my heart is renewed.

The breeze is light, the moon is full,
The earth feels new. The earth feels new.
