

Songsheet (English)

Title: Now I have joy

Translation of:

When I remember my past, I cry.
But now I know I have been given a new life.

Because my sins have been freely forgiven, I am filled with joy
I spend my life praising God.
Because my sins have been freely forgiven, I am filled with joy
I spend my life praising God.

I give my heart as a sacrifice. I give my heart as a sacrifice.
Because my sins have been freely forgiven.
Because my sins have been freely forgiven, I am filled with joy
I spend my life praising God. Because I am forgiven...

I ask You, Lord, for wisdom. I ask You, Lord, for wisdom.
Because You have put new desires in my heart.
Because my sins have been freely forgiven, I am filled with joy
I spend my life praising God. Because I am forgiven...

I give You my strength, my words, and my action
I give You my strength, my words, and my actions
as a sacrifice to You, God.
Because my sins have been freely forgiven, I am filled with joy
I spend my life praising God. Because I am forgiven...

I need a fresh, new heart. I need a fresh, new heart.
Please hear my never-ending prayer, Lord.
Because my sins have been freely forgiven, I am filled with joy
I spend my life praising God. Because I am forgiven...
